

Library Update Effective April 28, 2020

Per Governor Baker's extended Stay-at-home Advisory in effect through May 18, the Stevens Memorial Library will be closed to the public through May 18. All Library programs have been canceled through May 18.

You may continue to access online services, such as e-books, e-audiobooks, databases, and other electronic services, at:

<https://ashburnhamlibrary.org/>

<https://www.masslibsystem.org/>

Book Drop: For returning Library materials only. Book donations can be deposited in the Book Donations Bin located in the Library parking lot.

May 3-9: The Book Drop is open for returns from Ashburnham residents with last names beginning with A-M only.

May 10-16: The Book Drop is open for returns from Ashburnham residents with last names beginning with N-Z only.

May 17 and Thereafter: The Book Drop is open for returns from all Ashburnham residents.

Thank you for helping us to ensure Library materials are returned in a manageable and safe manner.

If you need assistance, please call us at 978-827-4115, or email the Library using the form on the Library website. Library staff will be checking Library email and voicemail, Monday through Friday.

We encourage you to stay in touch, informed and entertained by visiting us on social media. Facebook and Instagram links can be found on our library website.

Thank you for your patience and understanding during this difficult time. We look forward to seeing all of you when things return to normal!
